FORSCOM Regulation 385-1, Forces Command Safety Policy, dated 31 March 1998, is changed as follows:

Delete paragraph. Para 5-7d (Changes 2 and 3 as shown below)

Head protection (kevlar helmet or CVC as appropriate) will be worn by all personnel operating or riding as a passenger in Army tactical vehicles whenever they are driven outside the motor maintenance facility. This head protection requirement applies to all FORSCOM units, regardless of their installation of assignment or deployment status. Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Commanding General, U.S. Army Forces Command.

Replace with: Company, battery, or troop commanders will have the authority to prescribe the headgear required in Army tactical vehicles. All leaders can adjust to a higher level of protection if the risk assessment warrants.
